

PROGRAM NOTE:

The piece is a virtuoso vehicle with an opening declamation, a technically challenging fast section, a slower romantic fantasia, and finally a fugue in fast tempo. Influences include many of the composers whose piano works I studied at the University of Minnesota, most notably Shostakovich, Berg, Prokofief and Hindemith. Apparizioni is the Italian equivalent of “apparitions,” fleeting phantoms.