

The Last Invocation, commissioned by Philip Brunelle's Plymouth Music Series, was conceived as an encore to a program of British music performed by the Westminster Abbey Choir in Minneapolis, October 1988. The text is by Walt Whitman.