

Meditation (Silent Amidah) was written in 1974 for the B'nai Emet Synagogue Choir, Steve Barnett, conductor. The Amidah, the central prayer of the Jewish liturgy, is recited while standing, first silently by the congregation, then aloud by the reader. This Meditation was meant to be sung during the silent portion.

duration: c. 1:30