

On Hearing the First Cardinal in Spring (2010; for piano)

“Sitting on the back patio in spring, hearing a newly-arrived cardinal’s song, returning similar whistle calls and reveling in the sweet response; this became a yearly joyful and magical expectation.” (JT)